

MARIELLA DEVIA – Soprano

Acclaimed by audience and critics as the queen of belcanto, Mariella Devia has been triumphing for more than 40 years in all the leading opera houses and concert halls of the world with her adamant voice and interpretative talents, “Her wonderful vocal line, her legato, her support and control of the breath, the smoothness of her high notes, her musical taste as well as her mastery of coloratura” (Elvio Giudici). Many of her portrayals have entered into the history of opera, above all her interpretations of Lucia in Lucia di Lammermoor, but also Gilda in Rigoletto, Konstanze in Die Entführung aus dem Serrail, Donna Anna in Don Giovanni, Giulietta in I Capuleti e i Montecchi, Amina in La sonnambula, Elvira in I Puritani, Adina in L’elisir d’amore, Linda in Linda di Chamounix, Amenaide in Tancredi, Violetta in La traviata, and in recent years the queens of the Tudor trilogy by Donizetti and Norma, just to name a few.

In 2016 she was awarded in London the “International Opera Awards 2016” prize as the best female singer of the year.

Born in Chiusavecchia d'Imperia (Italy), she studied with Jolanda Magnoni at the Conservatorio di Santa Cecilia in Rome, where she graduated. In 1973 she was the first prize winner at the Toti Dal Monte competition in Treviso, where she gave her debut as Lucia. In the following years she made her debuts on the stage of the most prestigious theatres of the world: in 1979 in Rigoletto at Metropolitan Opera in New York, where she has been regular guest for many years; in 1981 at Carnegie Hall as Lakmè, in 1984 at Wiener Staatsoper as Gilda, in 1987 at Opéra National de Paris as Elvira in I puritani, in 1988 at Royal Opera House Covent Garden of London in Die Entführung aus dem Serrail.

Her debut at Teatro alla Scala was in 1987 as Giulietta in I Capuleti e i Montecchi under the baton of Riccardo Muti. Since then she has achieved many momentous successes on the La Scala stage: Cherubini’s Lodoiska conducted by Maestro Muti, Die Entführung aus dem Serrail conducted by Wolfgang Sawallisch, Fiorilla in Il Turco in Italia with Riccardo Chailly, Tancredi with Daniele Gatti, La fille du régiment, Beatrice di Tenda, Lucrezia Borgia, Lucia di Lammermoor in 1992 and in 2006 for her last performance in this role, Maria Stuarda, La traviata.

Among the countless unforgettable productions in which she starred, we can mention the Mozart’s Requiem conducted by Claudio Abbado with the Orchestra Mozart, Le nozze di Teti e Peleo at Rossini Opera Festival in Pesaro under the baton of Riccardo Chailly, Rossini’s Adelaide di Borgogna at Festival della Valle d’Itria in Martina Franca conducted by Alberto Zedda, Lucia di Lammermoor and La traviata at Maggio Musicale Fiorentino (both conducted by Zubin Mehta), I Puritani with Richard Bonyngé at Teatro Massimo di Palermo, Rossini’s Otello at ROH Covent Garden (conducted by Gabriele Ferro), Donizetti’s Adelia and Berlioz’s Benvenuto Cellini at Carnegie Hall in New York, Semiramide and Marin Faliero at Teatro La Fenice di Venezia, Beatrice di Tenda at Concertgebouw of Amsterdam, L’elisir d’amore and Il pirata di Bellini at Liceu de Barcelona, Verdi’s Giovanna D’Arco at Teatro Carlo Felice di Genova, her debut as Norma conducted by Michele Mariotti at Teatro Comunale di Bologna in 2013, the triumphant coming back to New York in Roberto Devereux at Carnegie Hall in 2014.

Mariella Devia’s discography includes several CD and DVD recordings.
